In-House Security Training Course Outline

In-House Security Training Course is course is designed specifically for in-house security departments. This training can be modified to any department needs while maintaining the integrity of the department's standards of training. The following course are covers in the training:

1. State Law – How it applied to In-House Security
2. Crime In Progress
3. Officer Survival – Scenario Training
4. Report Writing
5. Note Taking and Information Gathering
6. Gang Identifiers
7. Patrol Techniques
8. Patrol Observation
9. Bomb Treats and Terrorism – To include proper response
10. Domestic Violence
11. Workplace Violence
12. Active Shooter
13. Crime Scene Investigation
14. Use of Force
15. Citizen Arrest (How does it apply to In-House Security
16. Criminal Trespass
17. Title 42 USC 1983
18. Courtroom Testimony
19. Crowd Control – Critical Incidents
20. Interpersonal Communication
21. Customer Service
22. Access Control
23. Alarm Systems and Response
24. Hazardous Material
25. Ethics and Professionalism

Hours:	Twenty-Four (24) or less
Instructional Method:	Lecture / Practical Exercise
Training Environment:	Classroom / On Site Facilities
Training Media:	Video / Internet Access
Equipment / Material Needed:	Projector / Internet
Handouts:	Training Manual
Practical Exercise:	Scenarios Evaluation
Test Questions:	30 Question Test
Study Assignment:	Training Manual / OCGA Criminal Codes
Approved By:	Kenneth H. Hickey, Sr.
	President / CEO
	Chief Training Instructor